TO OUR KNOX COUNTY FRIENDS.

The Committee of Arrangements, before closing this publication, would remind our friends of the County, that the crowd here will be much greater than is now anticipated, by our most enthusiastic and sanguine friends. All are therefore expected to do some part in the way of furnishing provisions, such as Bread and Meats, cooked at home, by all means, and furnished here the evening before, or on the morning of the 4th. Hams, Shanks, Lamb, Beef, Chickens, Turkey, Pies, Pickles, & Knobcville will do her part in the way of defraying expenses, and each means, and no mistake!

By order of the Committee Aug. 14th, 1856.

THE WHIGS IN NEW YORK:

On our first page will be found the address of the Whig State Convention of New York, which next week last in Albany.

The national spirit which it breathes is characteristic of that band of pure patriots in New York who have joined to the Old Whig standard and repudiated all the hypocritical appeals of Lincoln and the corrupting influences of Black Republicanism.

For Fillmore and the Union do the "glorious old Whig" & New York will give the State in November. Our hopes of the old Whigs are fast being realized, as by state often they array themselves on the side of Fillmore—the Constitution—the Union!

THE ALABAMA ELECTION.

The election in Alabama on Monday was, only for county clerks, in some of the counties, and lot tax assessors in others, and the papers from that State, both American and Democratic, do not publish the returns except from their localities. The Wethumpka Spectator, a Democratic paper, states that in several of the precincts of that county no polls were opened, and that not more than half the vote of the counties were polled anywhere. In some of the strong Democratic counties American clerks and assessors were elected; and in some strong Ameri-
